Following high school, Pam moved to Omaha, NE, where she took modeling classes. She worked as a model for J.C. Penny, along with Younkers, for few years before working as a nurse's aide. Pam was a very loving daughter and sister. She was a very social person and enjoyed visiting with people.

Pam was very athletic with great talents and was very good at playing the piano. She enjoyed fishing and frog gigging with her siblings many summers. She also had wonderful neighborhood relationships with all the children on her street, such rich fellowship riding bikes, playing backyard games, and sledding in the winters. In Pam's most recent years, sharing her life with fellow residents at Montezuma specialty care, she had endeared herself to everyone there as a welcoming friend and compassionate confidant. She especially loved the elaborate Christmas parties and celebrations there and visitors who'd come.

She is survived by her mother, Mary Margaret Mobley of Grinnell; her sister, Julie (Jim) Oswald of St. Joseph, MO; her nieces, Jill (Cameron) McComb, great nephew, Tatum McComb, great niece, Palmer McComb all of Whitestown, IN; Jenna Oswald (Fiancé, Matthew Salamon) of Parkville, MO; her nephew, Joshua Oswald of Northwest Missouri State University in Maryville, MO; along with countless aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
