

14-1893
Mrs. Julia E. Work of the Northern Indiana Orphans' Home arrived in the city Friday with twenty-six children from the Home, six of whom were girls. She was accompanied by Misses Barr and Jackson who assisted her. The children were bright and ranged in years from three to twelve. It was no trouble to dispose of the little people, as a good many citizens were on hand early to get a choice. Contracts are made for three months, with the option of withdrawing the children from any home reserved by Mrs. Work. Fifteen or sixteen in all were placed in Grinnell, and several at Gilman. Mrs. J. A. Porter took a boy; Mrs. S. M. Bartlett two boys; Mrs. Wm. White a girl; Mrs. Buffett a girl; Mrs. Good a boy; Mrs. D. H. Manning a girl; Mrs. Stonestreet a boy; Mrs. Gulliber a boy; Mrs. Rowe a boy. Others were placed here but we were unable to learn with whom. The little colored girl found a home in a Gilman family.

The Grinnell Herald

W. G. RAY

G. W. COWDEN

RAY & COWDEN Editors & Prop's

Grinnell, Iowa, Tuesday, Feb. 2, 1904

few years ago.

—The celebrated Ben Hur flour for sale only at F. W. Tackeys - 87-2

—The hotels of the city could not accomodate Mr. J. C. Clark Thursday night with his fourteen children for whom he was seeking homes as a representative of the Children's Aid Society and they were therefore compelled to spend the night in the union depot. They were on their way to New Sharon where Mr. Clark met with a citizens' gathering called for the purpose of providing them with suitable homes. That the night might be the less unendurable Mr. Swaney generously supplied them with robes and blankets. Grinnell evidently needs more hotel accomodations.

The Grinnell Herald

W. G. RAY

RAY & COWDEN Editors & Prop's

Grinnell, Iowa, Friday, Oct. 6, 1903

ASSEMBLY ROOM CHURCH
A party of children aged from eight to fourteen years, from the New York Juvenile Asylum, will arrive in Grinnell at the Chapel House, Wednesday, October 11th. Homes are wanted for many of the families where they will be cared and treated and enjoy fall holidays. They may be taken on trips several weeks and afterwards, if all cases are settled, an agreement will be signed. Persons desiring to take the children on trips are requested to meet them at the Chapel House, Wednesday forenoon, October 11th, as they will remain but one day in Grinnell. For further information inquire at your post office for a handbill giving full particulars. All expenses for transportation will be assumed by the Asylum and the children will be placed on the train.

The Grinnell Herald, 11/14/1893

Miss Julia E. Work of the Northern Indiana Orphans' Home arrived in the city Friday with twenty six children from the home, six of who were girls. She was accompanied by the Misses Barr and Jackson who assisted her. The children were bright and ranged in years from three to twelve. It was no trouble to dispose of the little people as a good many citizens were on hand early to get a choice. Contracts are made for three months with the option of withdrawing the children from any home reserved by Mrs. Work. Fifteen or sixteen in all were placed in Grinnell and several at Gilman. Mrs. J.S. Porter took a boy; Mrs. S.M. Bartlet two boys; Mrs. Wm. White a girl; Mrs. Buffett a girl; Mrs. Ed Good a boy; Mrs. D. H. Manning a girl; Mrs. Stonestreet a boy; Mrs. Gullihier a boy; Mrs. Rowe a boy. Others were placed here but we were unable to learn with whom. The little colored girl found a home in a Gilman family.

The Grinnell Herald, 2/2/1904

The hotels of the city could not accommodate Mr. J.C. Clark Thursday night with his fourteen children for whom he was seeking homes as a representative of the Children's Aid Society and they were therefore compelled to spend the night in the union depot. They were on their way to New Sharon where Mr. Clark met with a citizens' gathering called for the purpose of providing them with suitable homes. That the night might be the less unendurable, Mr. Swaney generously supplied them with robes and blankets. Grinnell evidently needs more hotel accommodations.

The Grinnell Herald, Oct. 6, 1899

A party of children, aged from eight to fourteen years, from the New York Juvenile Asylum, will arrive in Grinnell at the Chapin House Wednesday, Oct. 11. Homes are wanted for them with families where they will receive kind treatment and enjoy fair advantages. They may be taken on trial for several weeks, and afterwards, if all parties are satisfied, an agreement will be executed. Persons desiring to take these children on trial are requested to meet them at the Chapin House Wednesday forenoon, Oct. 11, as they will remain but one day in Grinnell. For further information inquire at your post office for a handbill giving full particulars. All expenses for transportation will be assumed by the Asylum, and the children will be placed out free of charge.