Fines accumulate from the first day an item is overdue at a rate of five cents per day for youth collection items, ten cents per day for adult collection items, and $5.00 per day for items of equipment. An item that is returned within the first seven days after the due date will have the fines waived with the exception of interlibrary loan items and items of equipment.

Circumstances which may require the Library to release the information include the following:

1. A criminal or juvenile justice agency is seeking the information pursuant to an investigation of a particular person or organization suspected of committing a known crime AND the criminal or juvenile justice agency presents the Library Director with a court order demonstrating that there has been a judicial determination that a rational connection exists between the requested release of information and a legitimate end and that the need for the information is cogent and compelling.
2. The Library receives a Warrant for the information issued under the USA Patriot Act (which includes amendments to the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act and the Electronic Communications Privacy Act) under a properly drawn court order.

3. The Library receives a valid court order requiring the Library to release registration, circulation or other records protected under the Iowa Code as a result of local, state, or federal judicial review.
- D. A request for user records that does not reveal information about use of library materials or information may be honored if the request comes from a public agency or (at the staff's discretion) from any other library. Such information would be limited to a user's contact information and would not include the user's registration number assigned by Drake Community Library.
- E. Requests for information about individuals originating from private individuals or entities will be answered only with information from published sources.
- F. The Library interprets possession of a user card as consent to use it unless it has been reported lost or stolen, or there is reason to believe that consent has not been given.
- G. 7th grade and older users may extend confidentiality privileges to other persons designated by said user. Names of persons so designated must be listed within the primary user's account. A person possessing confidentiality privileges may:

 3. access fines and fee information and apply payment on the primary user's account.
 4. provide updates to contact information on the primary user's account.
