

Faulconer Art in the Park 2018

Putting Art Where the Kids Are

Look for Faulconer Art in the Park activities marked in red on the calendar.

The Faulconer Gallery is offering free hands-on art and literacy activities for kids & families in area parks. Every session will offer drawing, 2- & 3-D collage projects, beading, truck glittering, painting, bookmaking, type-a-thon, and reading activities. A special project including ceramics, printmaking, marbling, sewing, wood cut outs, tie-dye or other activities will be offered at each session. No registration is necessary. For more information, contact outreach curator Tilly Woodward @ 641-269-4663 or woodward@grinnell.edu.

Read, Write and Draw @ Faulconer Gallery

This free program is available for students to drop-in for a quiet hour of reading, writing, and drawing. Bring your own book or read one of ours. Create a story or draw in response to one of the artworks on display or from your imagination. Make a small book! Faulconer Gallery will provide supplies and our education staff will be there to read, write, and draw with you.

2:00 – 3:00 pm Wednesdays, June 13, 20, 27
and July 11, 18, 25
11:00 am – noon Fridays, June 15, 22, 29
