Kent C. Dutton, 76, of Grinnell, died Wednesday, May 29, 2013, at his home.

A memorial service was held Thursday, June 6, 2013, at the Station Clubhouse in Grinnell.

Memorials may be directed to the Station Clubhouse and sent in care of Smith Funeral Home, PO Box 368,

Grinnell, Iowa 50112.

Kent was born Jan. 24, 1937, to Charles and Edith Dutton, in Wyoming. He attained his GED and went to college and became a substance abuse counselor for troubled youth. He also worked in the engineering department at a casino in Las Vegas.

On July 25, 1967, he married Maria E. Jarvis in Los Angeles, Calif. The couple lived in Oregon, New Mexico, Wyoming, Washington and Colorado before making their home in Grinnell in 1998.

Kent enjoyed fishing and hunting, and was proud of his adoption by the Tribal Council to the Arapaho Native American Tribe, in Wyoming, where he worked as a counselor.

He is survived by many relatives, including Helen Marcum and Theresa Berry of Grinnell, and his dog, Cookie.

Kent was preceded in death by his parents; and his wife, Maria, on Dec. 14, 2012.
