

Obituary
Frank A. Hagen
Grinnell Herald Register
12/3/1945

Frank A. Hagen was reared in the vicinity of New Boston, Iowa. After finishing business college at Valparaiso, Ind., he was appointed station agent operator and tower man for the Santa Fe road, serving in that capacity until 1914. At that time he went into the automobile business at Grinnell, retiring in 1943.

He married Miss Ina Hamilton on Dec. 25, 1909. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife and three children: Lillie Hagen Shields of Bellmore, Long Island, N.Y.; Erno G. Hagen of Portland, Ore; and Walter S. Hagen of Charlotte, N.C. He also leaves six small grandchildren: Larry and Frank Hagen, Linda and Shirley Hagen, and Gay and Craig Shields.

Funeral services in charge of the Rev. C.D. Loose were held in the James Funeral Home at 2 p.m. Friday. Pallbearers were Clair Strand, Dave Haines, Harlan Inman, Tom Godfrey, Wm. French and John Jantzen. Music was furnished by the Rev. G.A. Bird and E.G. Peterson, accompanied by Miss Esther Mullins at the piano.

Funeral Services
For Frank Hagen
Friday Afternoon

Frank Hagen passed away Wednesday evening at his home, 1717 Fourth avenue after an extended illness. Mr. Hagen had been an automobile dealer for approximately thirty years, representing Chevrolet cars most of the time and being a member of the firm of Hagen Bros., which has been succeeded by the Van Wechel Motor Co.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the James Funeral Home.
