Scott A. Howard was born on Aug. 22, 1965, in Marshalltown, the son of the late Donald and Patricia Hawkins Howard of Laurel. Scott attended school in the SEMCO Community School District, graduating with the class of 1984. He was a twin, and they were one of three sets of twins that started and all graduated in the same class.

Scott earned a degree in auto mechanics at Marshalltown Community College, then worked at Hoop's Standard, Swifts, Delong's Sportswear, Donaldson's, and Jen-Weld Doors. He had recently started his own house cleaning business.

He is survived by his twin sister, Kristi Howard, of Laurel; his older sister Ellen Sloan of Marshalltown; and many other relatives; as well as his special four-legged friends, his pets: Scout, his faithful terrier, and his cat Jet.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one sister, Lori Howard.
