Jeremy Michael "Seu-Mo" Seu

Jeremy Michael "Seu-Mo" Seu, 30, of Grinnell died April 27, 2013, at University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics, from injuries sustained in a motorcycle accident in Grinnell.

A celebration of life gathering will be held from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Saturday, May 4, at the Grinnell Eagles Club. Honorary bearers will be Anthony Seu, Tim Willis, Shaun Kicklighter, Michael Hassin, Bart Willis, Jim Sadler, Robert Clayton, Robert Betts, Chollana Chhouy, Landon Mackin and Jessie Bryant

Memorial contributions may be directed to the Jeremy Seu Memorial Fund.

Jeremy was born October 12, 1982, in Grinnell, the son of Alfredo Botello and Loraine Lemke. He was raised in Grinnell and was a 2001 graduate of Grinnell High School.

Following his education he continued to make his home in Grinnell and was employed for several years at Jimbo's, The Pub Down Under, Depot Crossing and later with the 9th Hole. More recently he was employed with Trinity Towers in Newton.

Jeremy lived his life to the fullest and held a strong work ethic. He loved people for who they were and was a loyal friend. He was an artist at heart, enjoyed cooking and paint-balling with friends. He held a passion for motorcycles and a love for riding his Honda 600 R on the road.

Survivors include his spouse, Stella Mackin of Grinnell; his soon-to-be-born son, Xander Michael Seu; his mother, Loraine Lemke of Des Moines; four siblings, Anthony, Jennifer, Koren and Kaylanna Seu, all of Newton; and his "brother-in-arms" Tim Willis of Grinnell. He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Leonard and Nancy Lemke.
