

CHARLEY HOOVER

Charley Hoover, 77, of What Cheer died Nov. 24, in Grinnell. A graveside memorial service will be held Dec. 3 at the Highland Cemetery near What Cheer. A luncheon will be held immediately following at Dorothy and Charley's residence at the pond. Memorial contributions may be made to the Mayflower Homes, Inc. 616 Broad Street Grinnell. Harden Funeral Chapel in What Cheer is in charge of the arrangements.

Charles "Charley" Theodore Hoover was a construction worker for many years. Charley loved to fish, hunt, camp, and most of all spend time with his family at the pond. He was preceded in death by his parents Eber and Elsie (nee Ackles) Hoover, his sisters: Leatrice Joy, Zola, and Helen; four brothers: Pete, Max, Rex, and Dick.

He is survived by two brothers: Don of Muscatine and Cyril of Marshalltown; his wife Dorothy and his children David (Cris) Hoover, Cheryl (David) Hemsley, Leilani (Gerry) Tremmel, Billy (Melinda) Hoover, Jim (Tammy) Hoover, and Mike (Lori) Hoover. Charley was the cherished grandfather of Angie and Cory Hoover, Chelsea Molyneux and Shanoah Keep, Jason, Josh, Jacoby Tremmel and Jeri Gragg, Jeremy and Olivia Hoover, Courtney and Conrad Hoover, MiKayla Hoover, a step-grandfather of Lisa Ryan, loving great-grandfather of eight grandchildren, step-great-grandfather of four, and an uncle of many nieces and nephews. Charley was very well-known and will be missed by many.
