

Larry Humphrey, 58

Larry D. Humphrey, age 58 of Brooklyn, died Tuesday, Sept. 27, 2011 at his home surrounded by his loving family. He passed away following a courageous 9 year battle with bladder cancer. Funeral Services were at 10:30 A.M. Saturday, Oct. 1, 2011 at the First Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn with Rev. John Reynolds, Jr. officiating. Interment was in the Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery. A memorial fund has been established.

Larry is survived by his wife Krista; his son Joshua (Heather) of Brooklyn; his daughter Megan Vajrt (Andy) of Williamsburg; a step-granddaughter Rebecca Vajrt and a precious grandchild to be born in January 2012. Also surviving are his mother Margaret Burns of Brooklyn and his brother David Humphrey (Beverly) of Wheaton, Ill. Larry was preceded in death by his father, Truman Humphrey and step-father, Eldon Burns.

Larry Dean Humphrey was born March 7, 1953 in Grinnell, the son of Truman and Margaret DeLoof Humphrey. He graduated from BGM High School with the Class of 1971 and attended Central College in Pella. Larry and Krista Goodlow were united in marriage on Sept. 17, 1983 at the First Presbyterian Church in Montezuma. Larry had been employed by Manatts and Owens Construction. In 1977, Larry went to work for Malcom Stone Martin Marietta, starting as a stockpile truck driver. He worked his way up and was currently plant manager.

Larry loved spending time with his family and friends. He especially enjoyed the good conversations, jokes and laughs with them. Larry was grateful for the support and encouragement from his extended family and countless friends. He was a hunter and fisherman, liked to play with Hawkeye and Max, and enjoyed reading. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn.
