

Norman Henry Kastendick

Norman Henry Kastendick, age 78 of Iowa Falls, went to be with his Lord and Savior on November 1, 2011, at the UIHC in Iowa City. Funeral services will be held 10:30 a.m. at the Bethany Lutheran Church in Iowa Falls on Friday, November 4, 2011, with burial in the Union Cemetery in Iowa Falls. Visitation will begin 1.5 hours prior to the service at the Bethany Lutheran Church. The Surls Funeral Home of Iowa Falls is in charge of arrangements.

Norm was born on January 22, 1933, the son of Henry and Anna Klein Kastendick. He graduated from the Alden High School in 1951. He trained as a Ranger in the U.S. Army at Fort Benning before heading overseas to serve his country in the Korean War from 1953-1955 where he earned a Bronze Star. He also served as head of the Quartermaster Corps during his service there. Norm farmed with his father and worked for the USDA. On June 20, 1958, he was united in marriage to C. Jeanne Campbell. In addition to farming, he was a direct pay agent for Wellmark Blue Cross Blue Shield of Iowa until his retirement. But above all his accomplishments, his trust in the Lord Jesus Christ was the most important thing in his life.

Norman is survived by his wife, C. Jeanne Kastendick of Iowa Falls, two sons, Kurt Kastendick and Kent Kastendick, a daughter, Annelise Saint Vincent, and a sister, Lavonne Hoversten.
