Dorothy Charlotte Beem Lang, 80, died Aug. 3, 2011.

Funeral services were held Monday, Aug. 8, at the Madison Church of Christ, with Dennis Smith officiating. Burial was at Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery. A luncheon followed at the Michael J. Manatt Community Center in downtown Brooklyn.

She requested that the only flowers at her time of passing be flowers from one's garden or wild flowers from along the Iowa roadside. Memorial donations may be made to the Madison Church of Christ, Brooklyn Activity Center or Brooklyn Community Estate.

Online condolences may be extended to the family at www.klosterfuneralhome.com.

Dorothy was born July 4, 1931, in Los Angeles, Calif., to Ray and Mildred Beem. At the age of one she came to live with her grandparents, Minnie and Walter Uhl, in Brooklyn. They raised her to adulthood, and she graduated from Brooklyn High School in 1948.

On June 1, 1948, she was united in marriage with Maynard Lang.

Dorothy was a long time 4-H leader, volunteer at Brookhaven Nursing Home (now Brooklyn Community Estates), and Brooklyn Activity Center. She was a member of the Madison Church of Christ and a full participant in their many activities. She supported her children in all their school, 4-H and church activities, and she was a full partner in the family dairy operation, keeping all the books and doing payroll until just a few years ago.

She is survived by her husband; four children, John Lang, twins Craig Lang and Christine Turpin, and Eric Lang; eight grandchildren; and five great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents and a brother Walter Beem.
