

Doris Ann Hawkins Manatt

Doris Ann Hawkins Manatt, 81, of Brooklyn, died of cancer Aug. 28, 2011, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Funeral services were scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 1, at the Michael J. Manatt Community Center, Brooklyn, with Rev. John Reynolds, Jr. officiating. Visitation was at the First Presbyterian Church, and burial will be at Calvary Cemetery in Brooklyn. Memorials may be made to BGM Citizens Scholarship Foundation (CSF) designated for the Doris Manatt Scholarship. Kloster Funeral Home of Brooklyn is in charge of arrangements.

Online condolences may be extended to the family at www.klosterfuneralhome.com.

Doris Ann Hawkins was born March 23, 1930, in rural Poweshiek County to Elmer Hawkins and Josephine Kriegel Hawkins. She received her education from the Brooklyn school system where she graduated in 1948. Doris Hawkins married Gerald John 'Junie' Manatt, Sr., on Nov. 17, 1949, in Brooklyn; they later divorced.

Doris always made life fun for her family, and family gatherings, holidays and 'game days' at her house will be cherished memories forever. She treasured many friendships, and welcomed adventure, near or far, enjoying many wonderful trips.

Survivors include two sons, John Manatt of Lakewood Ranch, Fla., and Tim Manatt of Gilbertville; four daughters, Debi Olson of Grinnell, and Melia Rhoads, Mary Jo Thompson and Mindy Holder, all of Brooklyn; two brothers, Dale Hawkins and Gene Willett, both of Brooklyn; one sister, Mary Cochran of Williamsburg; 20 grandchildren; and 17 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, an infant brother Donald, and brother Dean Hawkins.
