Nolan George Bayer was born Feb. 2, 2011 at Cedar Rapids, to David and Kelly Tanke Bayer. He was one of four siblings, Emily, Ryan and Beth. He was baptized at St. John's Lutheran Church on February 20, 2011. Nolan had just finished the 7th grade at the Lutheran Interparish School at Williamsburg. Nolan loved all sports and especially soccer and the NFL. He collected football cards and was an avid Minnesota Twins, Vikings and Iowa State fan.

He knew every statistic about every player and loved to share that knowledge with his friends. He was a jokester and enjoyed a good laugh, but most of all was a giver, helper and planner. He attended St. John's Lutheran Church where he loved to sing and his beautiful voice was always heard.

There was always a football game going at his grandparents' home and he had fun with his cousins playing in the dirt pile. Nolan spent his inside time playing Minecraft, X-box, building with Legos and playing with farm toys. Nolan enjoyed eating oatmeal cream pies, canned fruit, and especially his grandparents' breakfasts and meals. He was always happy and appreciative.
