Following graduation, he farmed until 1976, raising crops and cattle. Lloyd was united in marriage to Jo Ann Billick on August 18, 1957, at Grace United Methodist Church, Brooklyn.

Alongside farming, Lloyd was employed at various places in the area; he was the regional manager for Moorman's Feed Company, the area feed division for Malcom Co-op, Rohrer, and reading meters for TIP and PWA. He enjoyed pheasant hunting, having coffee with the guys on Thursdays, woodworking and gardening. Lloyd stayed involved with the cattle industry, by attending cattle and livestock shows. He was a member of the Poweshiek County Ag Extension, Poweshiek County Pork Producers and Poweshiek Cattleman. Lloyd was a 60+ year member of Grace United Methodist Church serving different positions within the church. He was also a member of the Malcom Masonic Lodge #174. Lloyd held several board positions, including the Brooklyn Housing and Brooklyn Cemetery Board. He was a 4-H leader for the Lively Livestock. In 1994, Lloyd and Jo Ann moved from the farm into Brooklyn. Together they enjoyed traveling, visiting Alaska, Hawaii and Norway, going dancing and following their grandchildren to the many events they were involved in. In the later years, they enjoyed going to plays, driving around and attending many county and state fairs. Above all else, Lloyd dearly loved his family and spending time with all of them.
