

Melvin

Diana M. Pope

Mrs. Diana M. Pop, 67, of Diamond Life Center, Montezuma, a former resident of 208 West 2nd St., Brooklyn, died Friday morning, Sept. 16th, in Grinnell Hospital.

Funeral Services for Mrs. Pop were held at 10 a.m., Monday, Sept. 19th, at the Apfel-Butler-Geddes Funeral Home in Grand Island, Neb. Burial was in the Westland Memorial Cemetery, Grand Island, Neb.

The Nevenhoven Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements. Diana Marie Mamot Pop, daughter of Jacob and Vonda Lukiewicz Mamot, was born Nov. 20, 1926, St. Libory, Neb. She received her education in St. Paul, Neb. Mrs. Pop was a nurses aide for many years at the Veterans Home in Grand Island.

She was united in marriage to Melvin Pop Feb. 10, 1967, in Grand Island. She moved to Brooklyn five years ago. She became a resident of Diamond Life Center one month ago. Surviving are one daughter, Virginia Olson of Brooklyn; one son, Robert Sack of Grand Island, three grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. Mrs. Pop was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; and one son, Dennis Sack.

BC September 21, 1994