

^{H-12}
Hold Powers
January 26, 1978
rites in Newton

Clarence E. Powers, 98, of Pewaukee, Wis., a former Kellogg area farmer, died Saturday evening in a nursing home. Jan. 21

Funeral services for Clarence Powers were held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Toland-Wallace Funeral Home in Newton. Elder Fred Phipps of LeGrand conducted the services. Burial was in Our Silent City cemetery in Kellogg.

Masonic services were conducted by the Meridian Lodge No. 280 of Kellogg.

The son of Charles T. and Armelda Young Powers, he was born on Oct. 4, 1879, in Kellogg. He was married to Artye Phillips on Nov. 15, 1905, also in Kellogg.

He had moved to Wisconsin some eight years ago.

Surviving him are his daughter, Mrs. Burdette (Cappy) Barns of Hartland, Wis.; four grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife; and a sister, Inez.

Memorial contributions to the Kellogg Masonic Lodge will be accepted. They may be left at the funeral home.