Malcolm Powers
Succumbs Friday

Malcolm L. Powers, 84, long-time Grinnell resident, died Friday morning at Montezuma.

Funeral services were held this afternoon (Monday) from the Smith Funeral Home with Dr. G. S. Bruland, minister of the Methodist church, officiating. Organ music was provided by Mrs. Kathleen Heffner.

Pallbearers were Ross Coutts, Russell George, Tom Godfrey, Lloyd Henderson, Stanley Preston, and Dan Reynolds. Burial was in Hazelwood cemetery.

Born March 6th 1875, near Brooklyn, he was the son of Worthy and Nancy Datin Powers. On Jan. 18th, 1905, he was married to Addie Bookneau in Grinnell and to this union was born one daughter, Mrs. Ray (Irma) Nusbaum of Denver, Colo.

Mr. Powers was commonly known as "Lon." He had served in the Iowa National Guard from March 7th, 1899 to March 4th, 1902. He was Past Noble Grand of the Grinnell Odd Fellows lodge and was a member of the Grinnell Methodist church. He lived in Grinnell most of his life, where he worked as a carpenter.

Mr. Powers was preceded in death by his wife and parents. Besides his daughter, he is survived by one brother, Marion Powers of Fort Madison.
