Carmen Preston

Carmen Preston, 81, of the Mayflower Home died of a pulmonary embolism Thursday, Dec. 13, at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the Grinnell United Church of Christ-Congregational, with the Rev. David Bowman officiating. Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.

The daughter of Newton E. and Josephine Jacobson Isaacs, she was born July 29, 1909, in Lake Mills. She graduated from Thompson High School in 1926 and later attended Grinnell College, Carleton College, Iowa State Teachers College and the Chicago Art Institute.

She was married to Stanley D. "Stub" Preston Jan. 18, 1932, at her parents' home in Thompson. The couple lived in Grinnell where she was a member of the United Church of Christ-Congregational, Chapter B.M. of P.E.O., and the Drummond Club. She had also served on the board of trustees of Grinnell General Hospital.

Surviving are her husband; one son, Stanley D. II of Roswell, Ga.; four grandchildren; one brother, Roy V. Isaacs of West Des Moines; and a sister, Margaret McIntire of Clear Lake. She was preceded in death by two sisters, Carol I. Lewis and Ruth E. Isaacs.

Memorials in her name may be made to her church.
