Last Rites Said For Albert Prusha

Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. today (Monday) at the James Schalinske Funeral Home for Albert J. Prusha, 77, who died Friday (April 17) noon at Grinnell General Hospital following an illness of the past few weeks.

The Rev. Newell E. Davis of the United Church of Christ (Congregational) and the Rev. L. V. Kuebrich of St. Mary's Catholic Church officiated at the services.

Pallbearers were Larry Crawford, Emil Prusha, Rudy Musel, Jim Norris, Russ Wessar and Frank Thompson.

Organist was Kathleen Helfner.

Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.

The son of Joseph and Anna Wolf Prusha, Mr. Prusha was born Sept. 28, 1892, at Chelsea. He received his education in the public schools of this community.

On April 14, 1914, he married Agnes Balvin at Vining, Iowa.

Following their marriage the couple lived in Marshalltown and Des Moines until a year ago when they moved to Grinnell to make their home with their daughter, Mrs. Clark Wilson.

Survivors include his wife, Agnes; one daughter, Mrs. Clark (Glendena) Wilson of Grinnell; a granddaughter, Karen Kay Wilson, a student at the University of Iowa at Iowa City; two sisters—Mrs. Clyde Cavanaugh of California and Mrs. Gilbert Hunt of Pocahontas, Iowa, and several nieces and nephews.

Mr. Prusha was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Charley Prusha.
