

Mrs. Roy Pugh Is G-H Deeply Mourned

Funeral Services Were Held Tuesday
From Westfield Church.

4-25-1924

Funeral services for Mrs. Roy Pugh, who passed away Easter Sunday at the Community Hospital, were held from the Westfield Church Tuesday afternoon under the direction of Rev. H. L. Wissler, of Chester, Mrs. Pugh's pastor during her girlhood days. Interment was in the Westfield cemetery.

Nada Davis was born at Exline, Iowa, March 30, 1894, and came with her parents to Chester township in the spring of 1911. The family lived in Chester for one year.

She was united in marriage to Roy N. Pugh Feb. 19, 1913.

Mr. and Mrs. Pugh had no children of their own but on the death of her brother's wife she took to her home and heart her little nephew, Wayne Davis, then 9 months old, and gave him a mother's love and care.

Mrs. Pugh was taken seriously ill and was taken to the hospital for an operation Sunday morning, April 20, but passed away at 11 o'clock of the same morning.

She leaves to mourn her loss a loving husband, her parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Davis of Nora Springs, six sisters and two brothers. The sisters are as follows: Mrs. Rosa Porter of West Grove, Iowa, Mrs. Cora White of Omaha, Neb., Miss Mamie Davis of New Orleans, La., Mrs. Blanche Perrigin of Nora Springs, Iowa, Mrs. Olive Brown of Rudd, Iowa, and Miss Ethel Davis of Minnesota. The brothers are Jesse Davis of Gilman and Glenn Davis of Nora Springs. Three other sisters preceded her in death and one brother, Everett C. Davis, was killed in action in the World War, May 28, 1917.

Mrs. Davis was only twenty nine years old. She was rich in the love of husband and family and friends and all who knew her, sorrow at the sudden termination of a life of such rich possibilities for happiness.

Pallbearers were B. N. Whitaker, Rolla Whitaker, Will McDowell, H. McCurry, Peter Doud, Gus Otcheck.
