

Monday, November 29, 1965

Wednesday Rites Held Here For Roy N. Pugh, 73

Roy N. Pugh, 73, died Wednesday morning at his home in Grinnell at 1011 High Street. He had been in ill health recently following hospitalization for a heart attack.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon from the James-Schalinske Funeral Home with the Rev. G. R. Dieken, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Montezuma, officiating. Organ music was provided by Mrs. Gene Holley.

Flower committee members were Mrs. Warren James and Mrs. Ida Heishman. Pallbearers were Virgil Doud, Robert Revell, Warren James, Dean Revell, John Zhorne and Harold Busby.

Interment was in Hazelwood cemetery.

The son of William G. and Hanna Lee Pugh, he was born in Grinnell on Nov. 5th, 1892, and farmed in this community until moving to Montezuma in 1936.

In 1913, he was married to Nada Davis. There were no children by this marriage, but they took her nephew, Wayne A. Davis, to raise. Mrs. Pugh died in 1924.

On July 8th, 1929, he was united in marriage with Violet B. Spencer. They continued to raise Wayne A. Davis and had six children. They farmed in the Montezuma community until 1961 when they retired and moved to Grinnell.

Survivors include his wife, Violet; his children, Wayne A. Davis of Tulsa, Okla., Roy R. Pugh of Cedar Rapids, Mrs. Donald (Bernice) McCortney of Des Moines, Larry W. Pugh of Newton, Mrs. Roger (Donna Mae) McClure of Grinnell, Mrs. Norman (Elaine) Waterman of Baxter, Mrs. Donovan (Marilyn) Deppe of Ames; 15 grandchildren; and a brother, Paul Pugh of San Fernando, Calif.

He was preceded in death by his first wife; his parents; a brother, Dawson Pugh; and three sisters, Pearl, age 4, Mrs. Harry Gillespie and Mrs. Louis Hafkey.

MONTEZUMA REPUBLICAN DECEMBER 9, 1965

Roy Pugh Services Conducted Nov. 27

Funeral services for Roy N. Pugh were held Saturday, Nov. 27, from the James-Schalinske Funeral Home in Grinnell with the Rev. G. R. Dieken officiating. Mrs. Gene Holley was the organist.

Flower committee members were Mrs. Warren James and Mrs. Ida Heishman. Interment was in Hazelwood Cemetery with Virgil Doud, Robert Revell, Warren James, Dean Revell, John Zhorne and Harold Busby serving as casket bearers.

Mr. Pugh, 73, died Wednesday morning, Nov. 23, at his Grinnell home. He had been in ill health recently following hospitalization for a heart attack.

The son of William G. and Hanna Lee Pugh, he was born in Grinnell on Nov. 5, 1892, and farmed in this community until moving to Montezuma in 1936.

In 1913, he was married to Nada Davis. There were no children by this marriage, but they took her nephew, Wayne A. Davis, to raise. Mrs. Pugh died in 1924.

On July 8, 1929, he was united in marriage with Violet B. Spencer. They continued to raise Wayne A. Davis and had six children. They farmed in the Montezuma community until 1961 when they retired and moved to Grinnell.

Survivors include his wife, Violet; his children, Wayne A. Davis of Tulsa, Okla., Roy R. Pugh of Cedar Rapids, Mrs. Donald (Bernice) McCortney of Des Moines, Larry W. Pugh of Newton, Mrs. Roger (Donna Mae) McClure of Grinnell, Mrs. Norman (Elaine) Waterman of Baxter, Mrs. Donovan (Marilyn) Deppe of Ames; 15 grandchildren; and a brother, Paul Pugh of San Fernando, Calif.

He was preceded in death by his first wife; his parents; a brother, Dawson Pugh; and three sisters, Pearl, age 4, Mrs. Harry Gillespie and Mrs. Louis Hafkey.