Sophia K. Puls

Sophia K. Puls, 93, of Sunny Hill Care Center in Tama, formerly of Malcom and Grinnell, died Friday, Dec. 24, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Martin Schreiber, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, officiating. Organist will be Margaret Wheeler, and pallbearers will be Vince Kriz and Carl, Gerald, Max, Mike and Roger Schroeder. Honorary bearers will be Claire Gross, Grover Loftin, Shirley Puls and Walter Puls.

Burial will be in Trinity Lutheran Cemetery. Memorials in Mrs. Puls's name may be made to the church.

The daughter of August and Sophia Steuhm Schroeder, she was born Feb. 1, 1900, in Tama County. She was raised on the family farm and attended rural school.

In 1918 she was married to Ted Puls. The couple farmed near Malcom. Mr. Puls died in 1953, and she lived in Malcom and worked at the Village Inn. She moved to Grinnell and worked as a housekeeper. Following her retirement she lived at Brookside South, and in 1990 she moved to Sunny Hill Care Center.

She was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church and the Ladies Aid of the church.

Surviving is one sister, Marie Harris of Grinnell. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; one sister, Minnie Casey; and four brothers, Louis, William, John and Carl Schroeder.
