

Obituary Of Addison Pyle

Addison C. Pyle, third son of Lloyd and Christana Pyle, was born in Pennsylvania, and departed this life Oct. 28, 1932.

Mr. Pyle was united in marriage to Sena M. Freese Mar. 1, 1905, at Malcom, Iowa. Their home was blessed with two daughters, Katherine who died in infancy, and Mildred at home in Grinnell.

Since coming to Iowa Mr. Pyle has lived in this community except for three years spent in Minnesota and four years in Lynn and Benton counties.

He was a kind husband and loving father, always ready with willing hands to help others who were in need.

Failing health counselled him to give up farming last March, following an operation the previous June from which he never fully recovered. He was confined to the University hospital for three months, returning to his home in August. Everything was done to assist him in his effort to regain his health but to no avail for heart failure closed his earthly life as he was peacefully sitting in his car Friday afternoon.

He leaves to mourn his loss his loving wife and daughter, three brothers, Geo. H. of Malcom, Robert E. of Akron, Ohio, Thomas J. of Mars, Pa., and one sister, Mrs. J. P. Morrison of Elwood City, Pa., and a host of relatives and friends.

Blessed are they that sleep in the Lord.

Husband and Father we
Miss you from your place,
A shadow o'er our life is cast;
We miss the sunshine of your face,
Your fond and earnest care;
Our home is dark without you,
We miss you everywhere.

Funeral services were conducted from the home on Park street at one o'clock and from the Presbyterian church of Malcom at 2 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Thalacker of the Lutheran church was in charge of the service. Interment was made at Ivy Hill cemetery.
